Nina Tucknott passed her demonstrator test in 2018 and relishes her time on the road bringing floral cheer far and wide.

She also teaches at adult education colleges in Sussex as well as at other local venues.

Nina grew up in Finland with flowers and nature playing a vital part from the word go.

Having been a freelance writer since the late 90s, Nina has been involved with several floral magazines both as an editor and as a contributor. Other hobbies include gardening, theatre, reading, as well as looking after five grandchildren.

Nina is a member of Horley Flower Club, as well as New Visions and Brighton & Hove Flower Club in Sussex.
